PRGodly Network News/ --International TV personality and author Rogelio Mills is releasing his newest single on Phoenix Fire Records!

His much anticipated debut POP/Urban single entitled, "I am Missing you," drops February 21, 2011.

The single is being praised by some of the biggest names in the recording business! That list includes five-time Grammy winning record producer, Michael J. Powell, who collaborated with Mills on this single.

Back in December of last year, Mills released his holiday single, entitled, "Christmas is not Christmas without you."

Mills, who is a Christian, says he has written a lot of love songs. "There is nothing wrong with Christians writing or singing love songs, just as long as the content does not conflict with Biblical values. Take for instance the book of the Song of Solomon." says Mills.

The song collaboration between Mills and Powell has been a long time in the making. The two have been friends a long time. "We go way back." says Powell, who has made several appearances on Mills' TV program, but in all the years the two have known each other, Mills never mentioned his musical talent. "I have known Mr. Powell for a long time, and he never knew I could sing!" says Mills. "He was really astonished!" Powell, who refers to Mills as "That voice," agrees. "When I first heard him sing, I was blown away!" he said.

Powell is not easy to impress. He has worked with the best of the best in the recording industry, including megastars such as the legendary Aretha Franklin, Anita Baker, R Kelly, Aaliyah, Gladys Knight, Kenny Rogers, Patti Labelle, Bone Thugs in Harmony and many others.

However, when asked whom he would compare Mills to as a recording artist, Powell laughed, and was quick to name another legend...the late King of Pop! "Rogelio Mills has a dynamic voice, which bears a striking resemblance to Michael Jackson, but he has a style all his own!" says Powell. "Anyone who loves Michael Jackson's music is going to love Rogers' [Rogelio Mills] music!"

Mills is enthused to work with Powell. “I feel blessed having been able to work with my friend, Mike Powell on this CD.” says Mills. “He is truly a legend, and a highly gifted music-producer! To have Mike collaborate with me on my music is a dream come true!”

He recalls the first person who discovered his tremendous gift. “I was just a little kid, and I was singing ‘Rockin Robin’ by Michael Jackson. Then my mom came running into the room wondering who turned the radio on. She could not tell the difference!” Mills went on to compete in a number of talent contests, and started several Christian bands.

He later received media attention for recording several songs to raise awareness about the plight of missing children and to help the homeless.
