

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Detroit, Michigan December 7, 2010

PRGodly Network News/ --International TV personality and author Rogelio Mills is releasing his first single on Phoenix Fire Records!

His much anticipated debut POP/R&B single drops this week, is entitled, “Christmas is Not Christmas without You.”

Mills, the cousin of legendary R&B Grammy winner Stephanie Mills, is a gifted singer, songwriter, composer and producer.

The single is receiving positive reviews from some of the biggest names in the recording business! That list includes five-time Grammy winning record producer, Michael J. Powell, who collaborated with Mills on this single.

The collaboration between Mills and Powell has been a long time in the making. The two have been friends a long time. “We go way back.” says Powell, who has made several appearances on Mills’ TV program, but in all the years the two have known each other, Mills never mentioned his musical talent. “I have known Mr. Powell for a long time, and he never knew I could sing!” says Mills. “He was really surprised!” Powell agrees. “When I first heard him sing, I was blown away!” he said.

Powell is not easy to impress. He has worked with the best of the best in the recording industry, including mega-stars such as Anita Baker, Aretha Franklin, R Kelly, Aaliyah, Gladys Knight, Kenny Rogers, Patti Labelle, Bone Thugs in Harmony and many others.

However, when asked whom he would compare Mills to as a recording artist, Powell was quick to name another legend...the King of Pop! “Rogelio Mills has a dynamic voice, which bears a striking resemblance to Michael Jackson, but he has a style all his own!” says Powell. “Anyone who loves Michael Jackson are going to love Rogelio Mills!”

Mills is enthused to work with Powell. “It is a tremendous blessing to be able to finally work with my friend, Michael Powell from the music perspective.” says Mills. “He is truly a legend, and a highly gifted producer! To have Mike collaborate with me on my music is a dream come true!”

In “Christmas is not Christmas without you,” Mills gives a truly heartfelt performance with incredible lyrics that will resonate with all of us, not only this year, but for many Christmases to come!

However, we can expect a lot more from Mills in the near future. He is currently in Phoenix Fire Recording studios working on his forthcoming CD, which is scheduled to be released sometime next year.

His forthcoming album is highly anticipated, as many in the industry are expecting big things from him. “Rogelio Mills is such a talented songwriter and singer. I’m telling you he is sitting on a string of hits.” says R.J. Rice, Chairman and CEO of Barak records. “There really isn’t anyone out there today who is like him. Everyone who hears him knows what a great talent he is!”

Though Mills first attained fame as a TV personality, he has been singing a long time. He was born in North Carolina, and started singing at age four. He recalls the first person who discovered his tremendous gift. “I was just a little kid, and I was singing ‘Rockin Robin’ by Michael Jackson. Then my mom came running into the room wondering who turned the radio on. She could not tell the difference!” Mills went on to compete in a number of talent contests, and started several bands.

He later received media attention for recording several songs to raise awareness about the plight of missing children and to help the homeless. He achieved a great deal of fame as the host of his own international TV show, “The Roger Mills Show,” where he interviewed nearly every major entertainer in the business. He is also the founder and president of the World’s first multi-channel internet television network, the Godly Network, which is set for launch in 2011.

“My goal now is for the world to know him, not just as a TV personality, but as a gifted singer and songwriter.” says Powell. “He is bringing something new and fresh the music scene. People are going to love his new single.”
